

ESMT Berlin – Master’s in Management Program

An international management degree bridging technology and applied business

Do your master's degree in Berlin, intern in some of the world's most dynamic companies, and start a career in innovation & technology management – Join our unique Master's in Management (MIM) degree program!

The ESMT MIM is a 22-month program designed for recent graduates in a quantitative discipline. MIM students develop their long term career plan and gain valuable business expertise before entering the job market. The program was developed in consultation with top German and international companies.

The MIM in a nutshell:

- Up to 10 months of internships and projects in global corporations or Berlin start-ups
- Internship opportunities offered by companies such as Allianz, Axel Springer, BMW, Bosch, Deutsche Bank, Deutsche Post DHL, E.ON, Gazprom, McKinsey, Siemens or ThyssenKrupp
- Learn a foreign language while completing coursework in English
- Work on a two-month Social Impact Project in Germany, Africa, or Asia

Specialize in:

- Innovation & Technology Consulting
- Value Chain Management
- Corporate Finance

The MIM program is designed for:

- Bachelor's graduates with a background in analytical subjects (science, technology, engineering, finance, economics, mathematics etc.); OR
- Students with any first degree displaying strong interests and abilities in quantitative subjects
- Scholarships are available for students with exceptional academic merit.

ESMT Berlin - Germany's most international business school

The European School of Management and Technology is the premier post-graduate business school in Berlin founded by 25 multinational corporations. ESMT Berlin is not only one of the top ranked business schools globally and in Germany; it is also the most international.

Open House and further information:

- Open House event on June 19, more info at www.esmt.org/mim
- Program start: September 2015; final deadline July 31, 2015
- Interested graduates should contact ESMT's Admissions Office by telephone at: +49 30 21231 1400, by e-mail with a copy of their CV at admissions.degrees@esmt.org or apply directly via our website.

